Great Sarpy County Quilt Exhibit Kick Off Program on June 5th

The Sarpy County Museum will kickoff this year's Great Sarpy County Quilt Exhibit on Sunday, June 5th at 2 p.m. with "Quilting Your Legacy" sponsored by Humanities Nebraska. Janie York will begin the free program with stories about the men and women who helped shape Nebraska's early quilt history and continue with a discussion of quilting as both a form of artistic expression and storytelling medium in our own culture. This program also demonstrates quilting as a method of recording family history.

The Great Sarpy County Quilt Exhibit runs June 1st through August 20th and will feature 100 quilts, both historic and modern, created or owned by Sarpy County residents. Live quilt demonstrations, scheduled throughout the summer, will complement this exhibit. Admission to the museum and these programs are free, but donations are always welcome.

About the Sarpy County Museum

The Sarpy County Museum, incorporated in 1953, is committed to protecting, preserving and promoting Sarpy County's rich history. It does this by hosting a variety of free programs, archiving local records and assisting with genealogy research. The museum is generously funded by Sarpy County and continues to rely on donations from members, volunteers and community supporters. The museum is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. For more information, contact the Sarpy County Museum, 402-292-1880 or museum@sarpcountymuseum.org.
