Sarpy County Museum to Hold Pie Social Fundraiser

Pie socials are an American tradition and that tradition is coming to Sarpy County! Join the Sarpy County Museum on Saturday, June 10th from 2 – 4 PM for this community fundraiser and kick-off event for the annual Great Sarpy County Quilt Exhibit.

The pie social serves as a kick-off event for the annual Great Sarpy County Quilt Exhibit sponsored by the Braided River Quilt Guild. The museum will be open to view the over 100 quilts on display from area quilters. The quilts will be on display until August 19th.

Pie, drinks and ice cream will be available for purchase. Tickets are $2 a slice and $1 for ice cream and drinks. The museum parking lot will be blocked off with reserved spots for handicapped parking and public parking at St. Mary's Catholic Church just one block east.

Old-fashioned games will be set up for kids with crafts including make your own barn quilt, weaved cards and pie demonstrations. The Bellevue train depot and UP cabooses will be open to explore. The pie social supports the museum's efforts in maintaining the museum, train depot and cabooses. Come for pies, quilts, trains and more June 10th at the museum!
